Driven by Independence

Recommending investments to clients requires more knowledge and expertise than ever. And keeping up with a changing investment universe isn't easy.

In such an environment, which shows no sign of abating, we think clients are well served by a best-of-breed approach to money manager selection. History has shown that no one investment manager, no matter how large, no matter how global, no matter how excellent a single product offering, can be all things to all advisors and investors. So we think that a well-defined selection process that focuses only on the best of the best in each asset class and style is essential for success.

Montage brings together world-class, institutional investment managers – each offering a distinct approach to asset management that reflects many decades of professional experience and proprietary investment strategies across global asset classes. Our organizational approach is to allow individual investment managers to retain boutique processes, talent and culture that have proven records of adding value to portfolios and meeting client objectives.

Today, we manage over $8 billion, while retaining organizational uniqueness and flexibility, allowing our investment managers to focus on what they do best.

- Our portfolio managers average over 20 years of investment experience.
- Our leadership has spent all of their careers managing money at leading fund families, banks, brokerage firms and hedge funds. They've learned first-hand how to meet challenges that can affect a company's ability to serve clients.
- Each investment manager has an independent, well-defined investment process and portfolio management discipline.
- Our organization has operations nationwide, and offers a virtual network of the best investment talent available in an effort to avoid the biases of any geography.
